Tom,

It's been a lot of fun - this year and all the rest! You've helped to make my Math classes livable - That goes for Physics too! Choir was a riot this year - you really ought to keep dancing - you're pretty good! Good luck at State - I hope you get to do what you want to! You're a lot of fun - don't change -

Love ya,
Carol

Tom, super
to a super (HA HA!)
friend during the years that we've had classes together. Have a fun summer and keep in touch.
Best of luck in Physics!
Dawn

Tom Vander Molen

Tom,

Thanks for being in my most wanted list of friends. It'll be so hard to forget the fun we've had. Remember the good times.

Love

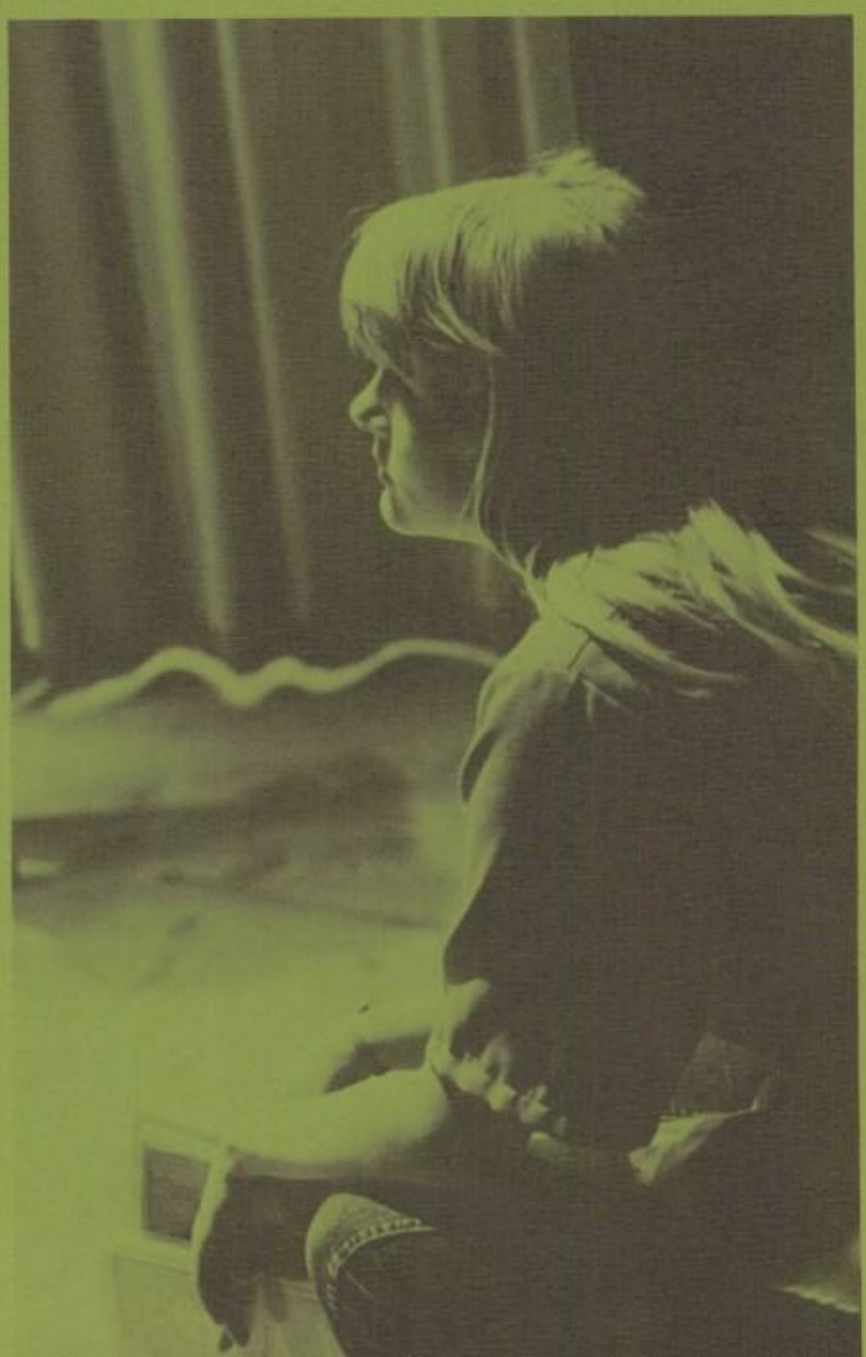
Soft sounds of '69

Doors creak open . . .
intruder in the dark . . .
breaking the quietude . . .
echoing down hallowed halls of acadamea.
Droning voices . . . monotonous lectures . . .
Pages rustle . . . last minute cramming . . .
pencils scratch across paper . . .
books piled high . . . volumes of the ages.
Days of future past . . . ignite tomorrow.
Hand in hand . . . words without words . . .
hushed whisper of trust . . .
thoughts overpowering the sounds of soul . . .
Guitar in hand . . .
strumming controversial songs . . .
which voices never sing.
Man in deep meditation . . .
lost in a world of thought . . .
like an island . . .
isolated from realities.
Times forgotten in a private place . . .
the future . . . so near . . . so far.



Thomas,

Soft sounds of 69' — yes! I think thats' my thing — I just think too much! Im very, very happy I had you in my English class!

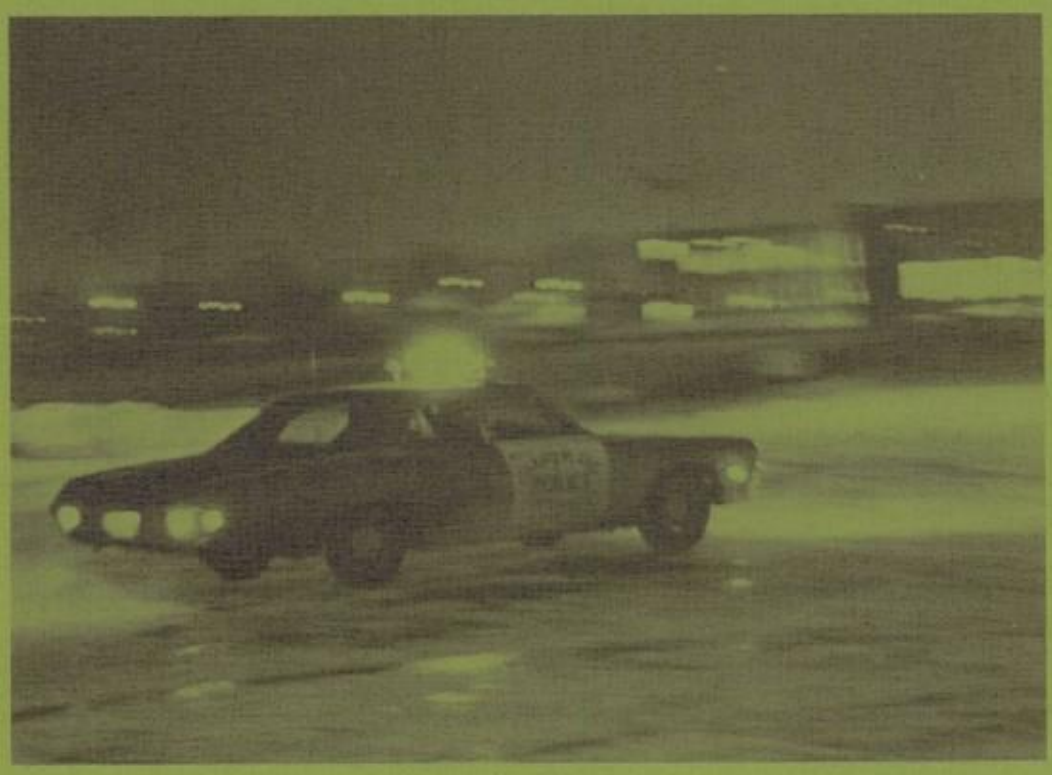
Dixie baby just wouldnt have been the same if I had'nt had such a "gentleman" sitting next to me! I hate signing yearbooks — I'd much rather write you a letter telling you why Ill remember this year and you — but as time is of the ~~essence~~ — I can't! I think we think a lot alike Tom - although I don't think you'll ever give me the chance to show you — ? Do you really have a best friend? Youve been sunshine to a lot of people - thanks for being mine —

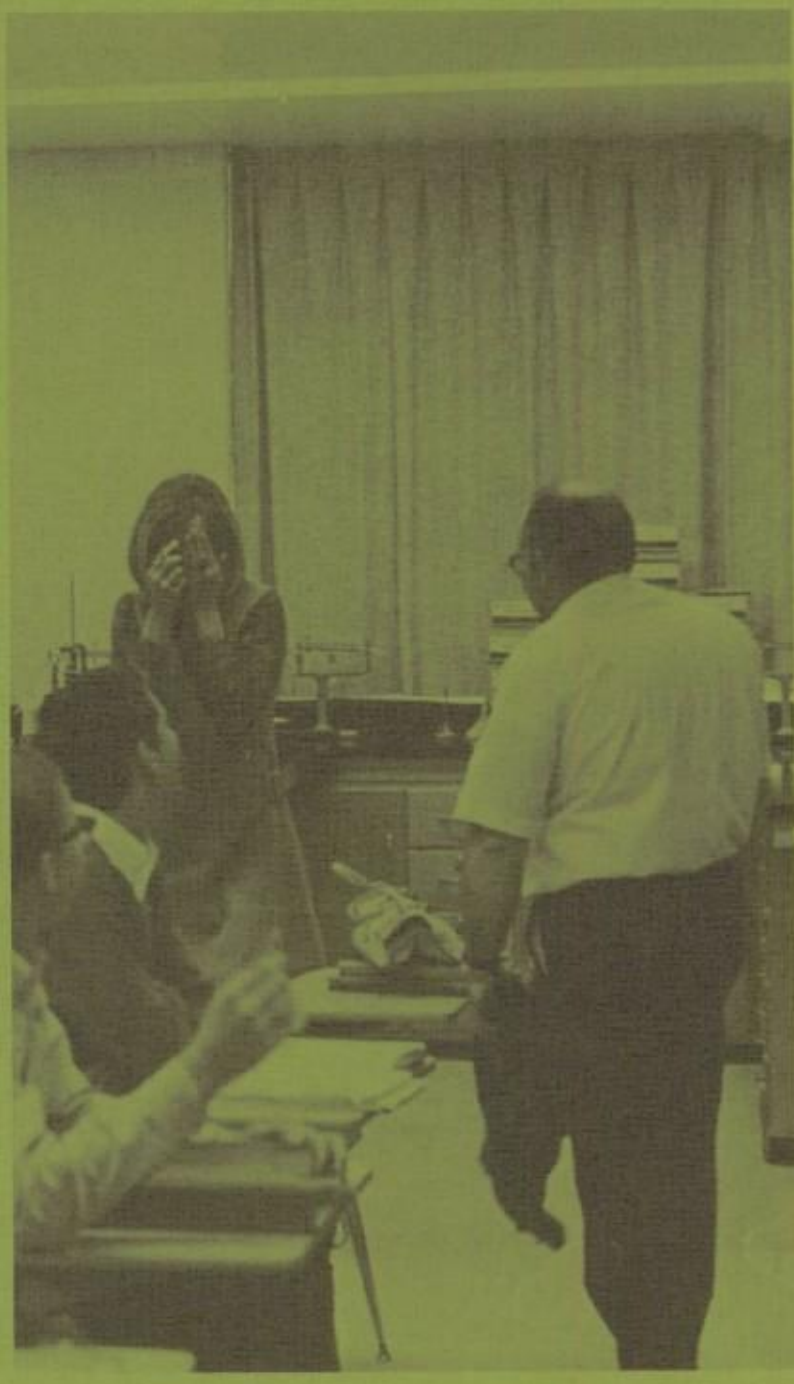
Brother! what a drifty broad!

love, Linda

Dum Dum! — I should send you a spelling book so you can study up this summer. See you in Noo State Next year!

East Complex no less!





Tim — HARVEY
You are truly the one in my life that I can call my friend —
and I'm glad I can — Your merit + great deal to me these past four years and when time back in all the experiences were shared
I get a little misty.
I pray that your life will be truly happy and filled with lots and lots
of love.
Remember, God loves you
And me too!
Love ya

Scott Odette leads sophomores as president

No longer rookies . . . a new awakening . . .
spoken to by underclassmen
for the first time.
Becoming involved,
voices toning down . . .
A surprise look at the babes,
"Were we really like that?"
Less confusion, more understanding . . .
Learning to recognize those "special moments."
On the brink of growing up . . .
school, no longer just fun . . .
knowing college is just around the corner.
Biology . . . class rings . . . World Affairs.
Capable leadership,
Scott Odette, president;
Edie Alexander, vice president;
Barb Bomier, treasurer;
Linda Kehm, secretary.
Perhaps the most spirited year . . .
the class of 1971 . . . rumbling from its depths . . . questions . . . few answers.

On their feet watching the game, spirited underclassmen support the undefeated freshman team as they conquer Flushing.

Foxy' Bobcat sale increases class treasury

Next to the last year . . .
close to being there
but not quite.
A testing ground for leadership . . .
Steering Committee . . .
spokesman, Tim Hopkins;
bulletin, Sue Mraz;
bookkeeper, Brian Hoyt.
eighteen members . . . eighteen opinions.
Sixteen . . . driver's license . . .
freedom . . .
finally getting a job . . .
but only the most base.
Monsoons of chemistry . . .
years of American history flying by.
Selling red and black pompons,
a "Foxy" Bobcat leaving claw marks in a show case.
On the bottom of the varsity,
learning for the next year.
Rudimentary beginnings of dreams . . . desires . . . powers . . .
Funneled into harmony.

Maggie Ward displays school color on red and black day while standing in front of the junior's Bobcat.

A junior class fund raising project enabled students to win this "Foxy Bobcat" by buying ten-cent pencils.

COMMENCEMENT

Graduation... this special, looked-forward-to-day, marks the end of an era for you. Yet, it's also the commencement of new, often unknown horizons. For some, it means going on to higher educational levels, for others, the time to seek employment. As one of the largest electric and gas utilities in the United States, Consumers Power Company offers a wide variety of job opportunities. We are always looking for qualified personnel...the well-known "voice with a smile" to give our customers help and information—bright, outgoing, responsible persons to explain our many services—clerks and typists—outdoor jobs, planning and installing gas and electric service, reading meters, driving trucks—etc.

Care to join us? If you do, please get in touch with our Division office in your city.

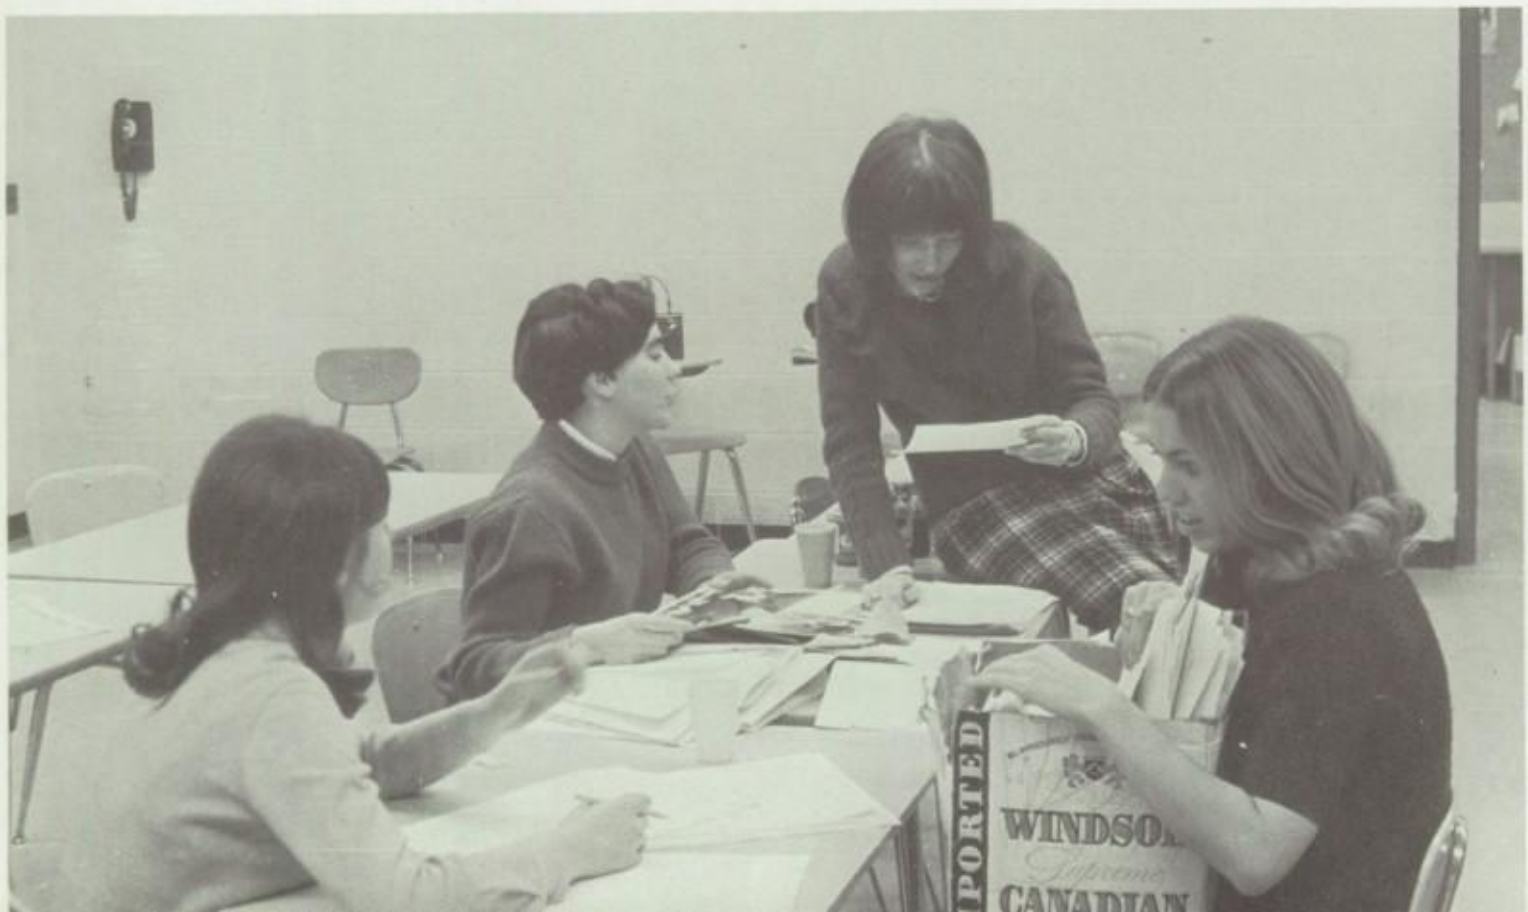
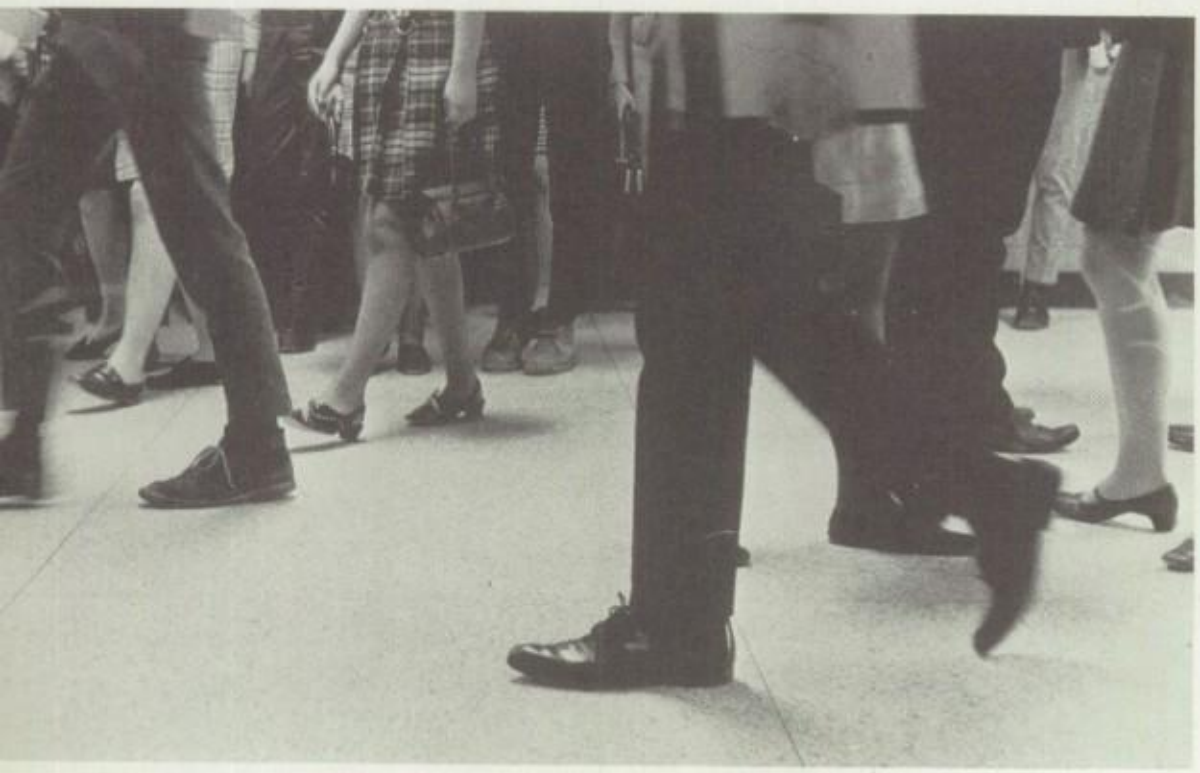
Echo staff recreates sounds of our generation

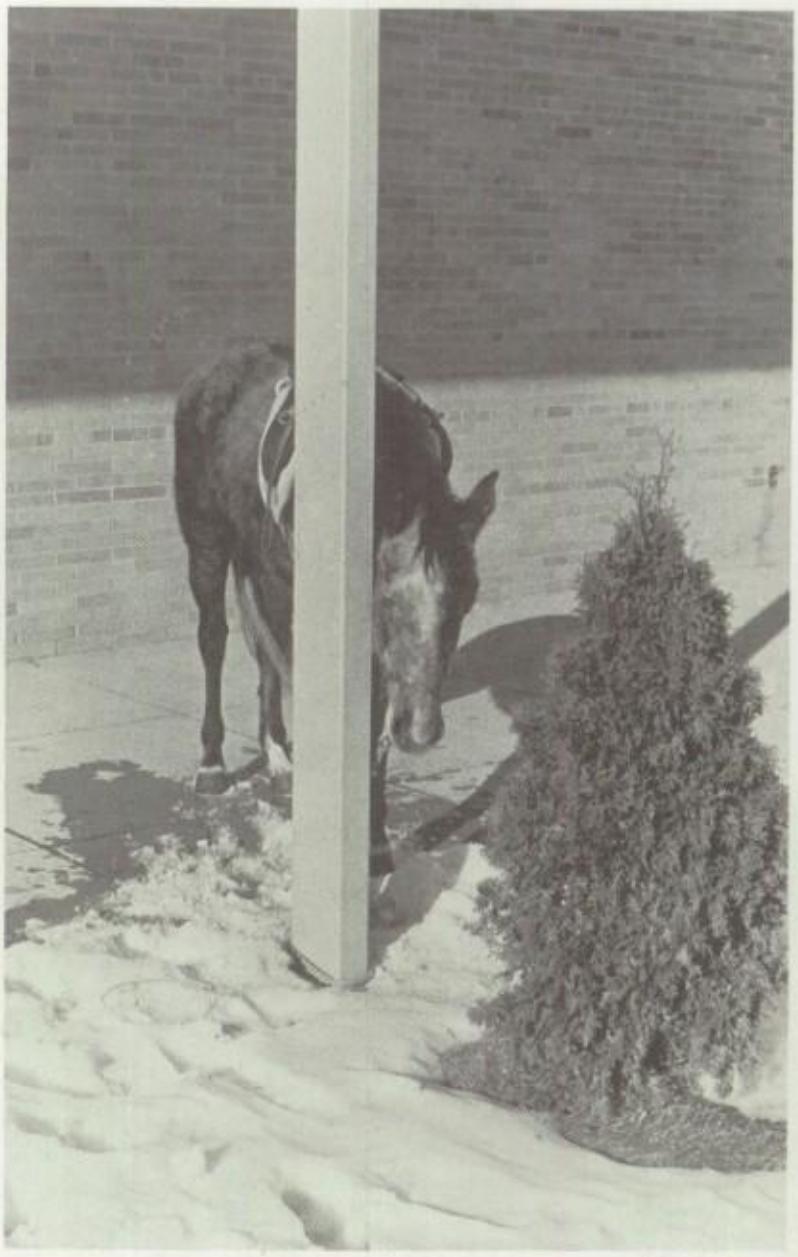
Hours go by unnoticed . . .
"Oh my gosh, I was supposed to be home an hour ago!"
Words come alive as they are scratched out on paper.
A deadline in the box . . .
sighs of satisfaction.
Profound thanks to . . .
Mr. Ken Drake, Taylor Publishing Company representative . . . for his encouraging opinions . . .
Mrs. June Burkett . . . for staying so late . . .
the Saturday morning donuts . . . pizza . . .
the peanut butter and jelly (?) . . .
but most of all for this experience . . .
Dennis Beardslee, Mr. Hugh Burkett, and Mr. George Sharley . . .
for making our "historical record" complete . . .
the parents . . . for letting their kids burn the midnight oil . . .
the Banner Staff . . . for the December 25th holiday . . .
last but not least . . .
an unforgettable staff . . .
thirty-five journalists who didn't give up!

Before transferring work onto triplicates, Sue Mraz and Kay Wright check for possible mistakes.

Selecting pictures for the 1969 Echo, senior staff members Maureen Murray, Peggy Devendorf, Theresa Knapko, and Pat Peterson make decisions on basketball shots.







Unending sounds of '69'

1969 . . .
sounds that linger on . . .
disagreement . . . violent discussion . . .
abrupt evacuation.
Feet shuffle down the halls . . .
sure of themselves . . . yet uncertain.
Horse hoofs clattered . . .
stranded motorists . . . rescued.
Exhausting practice . . .
performers go home to rest.
Pulsating melodies stem from tiny notes
as forceful energy causes surroundings to vibrate.
A sign shattered . . .
athletes . . . ready to compete.
Frantic cheers inspire team . . .
JV's set the pace with 104 points.
Fans . . . boasting victory . . .
silenced by defeat . . .
chanting . . .

"We're proud of our

. . . country

. . . sports

. . . sounds

. . . activities

. . . education."

Tom,

It's always hard for me to write in someone's book, but it's always "Especially" hard, when that someone really means a lot. Tom, I only really got to know you this year. We've had such a "Great" time in Choir. It will really be sad to say Goodbye to everyone. But it really seems funny because, since I did already see it coming to know you it seems I shouldn't be saying "Goodbye". I know that sounds a bit mixed up but you know what I mean. I guess I could be like everyone else and wish you luck and happiness, but it won't. Things like that will just come naturally to Great people like you..... As you can see, I have a terrible time expressing my feelings, but then again, I guess we all do around this time of year. Our friendship has meant a great deal to me. Thanks for being you.

Love,
Sherry Smith

Tom,

All I hope is that you live up to your dreams and potential - You've got what it takes to make the world a better place to live in. (Maybe someday I really will see you in a ghetto). We've had a lot of fun doubling in the past (though it has been a little crowded at times!) I hope we can double a lot more in the future. Charly the Tuna will never forget you. Stay on top, 'cause that's where you deserve to be!

Love,
Sharon

Tom,
You've got a personality
that's hard to sustain. I hope you're Dan! Or Ian something else knowing you this year - you've got a lot of talent - not only for handsprings, etc. But for being a good friend with you're endued.
Cindy Sheida

Tom,
Here's hoping the best we had this year. It's hard to believe its almost over. I know that you will always be successful in whatever you do. Good luck at State
Pat

Tom,
I got to know you
this year, and I'm so glad I did. A lot has happened this year. We had a lot of fun. I don't know how to say this without crying.
You're friendship has meant so much to me. I'll never forget
you. Good Luck & God Bless you

Love,
Susie
